Course Description

Academic writing doesn't have to be turgid prose that is agony to read (and to write). Complex ideas and abstract concepts can be expressed clearly and in language that's attractive to all interested readers. This session is for researchers who aspire to write clearly and elegantly in their discipline and who would like to develop their style.

All sessions run by Anne Wilson and Katie Grant are highly interactive. Numbers are limited, with every participant expected to do all required preparation, log-on on time, and contribute actively to the whole session. Writing Retreats require commitment to all the retreat days (2 days for Y1 and Y2; 3 days for Y3), and Writing Group requires commitment for six consecutive weeks. If you sign up and then have to cancel, you must let LISS know immediately. If you don't, you'll be depriving another researcher of the training opportunity.
